	T	F
26. Women are easier to hypnotize than men.	1
27. The hypnotic induction always takes at least 45 minutes.	T	F
28. It is possible for a one-time suggestion to remain 48 hours or more.	T	F
29. A person, who locks his/her hands, usually makes a good subject.	T	F
30. If a person remains in hypnosis, he/she should be rushed to the hospital.	T	F
31. The primary purpose of a session is to convince the subject.	T	F
32. Usually if a person resists, he/she cannot be hypnotized.	T	F
33. A hypnotized person does not have the power to reject a suggestion.	Т	F
34. Most stage hypnotists use the authoritarian method of induction.	T	F
35. A hypnotist must have a photographic memory.	Т	F
36. People in hypnosis on stage are actually sleeping.	T	F
37. All members of the National Guild of Hypnotists are required to follow the
Code of Ethics.	T	F
38. Hypnosis is an unconscious state.	T	F
7.1
39. Most subjects over estimate the time that they were hypnotized.	T	F
39. Most subjects over estimate the time that they were hypnotized. 40. A common fear of hypnosis is not waking up.	T	F
39. Most subjects over estimate the time that they were hypnotized.
39. Most subjects over estimate the time that they were hypnotized. 40. A common fear of hypnosis is not waking up.
39. Most subjects over estimate the time that they were hypnotized. 40. A common fear of hypnosis is not waking up.
39. Most subjects over estimate the time that they were hypnotized. 40. A common fear of hypnosis is not waking up.		